What is PVJOBS?

PVJOBS, Playa Vista Job Opportunities and Business Services, is a non-profit organization which has been serving the community as a workforce development agency since 1998. More than 100 collaborating community organizations provide life skills training to at-risk individuals and refer them to PVJOBS for employment assistance.

Referrals are maintained in a database and as employment opportunities become available, PVJOBS queries the database and makes referrals to employers

How to Apply to the Program:

PVJOBS only accepts clients referred by our collaborating partner agencies. Find one in your area from those listed on the back of this brochure and call for referral assistance.

Some agencies have a process to obtain a referral application. Please make sure to follow their procedures. Once their procedures are followed and a referral application is obtained, you will be able to attend a PVJOBS orientation.
